For Immediate Release – July 8, 2009

SALEM POLICE OBTAIN ARRESTS WARRANTS IN BB&T BANK ROBBERY CASE

Detectives from the Salem Police Department have obtained arrest warrants in relation to the bank robbery that occurred on July 6, 2009 at the BB&T bank branch located in the 200 block of South College Avenue.

Warrants have been obtained for:

Jason Bradley Davis, white male, age 29, 5'11", 200 lbs., brown hair and brown eyes.

Davis' last known address was in Radford. It appears that Davis is currently living as a transient.

It is unknown what mode of transportation Davis is currently using.

The Warrants obtained are for the following charges:

- Bank Robbery
- Threats to Bomb

The second charge is in relation Davis' reference to an explosive device that was communicated to the teller in his hold-up note.

The Salem Police Department is continuing to investigate the bank robbery that occurred on July 2, 2009 at the StellarOne bank branch located in the 1200 block of West Main Street. It has not been confirmed at this time if Davis was involved in that incident.

The Salem Police Department is seeking the public's assistance in locating Davis. If anyone knows his whereabouts, they are asked to contact either the Salem Police Department Detective Division at 540-375-3083 or their local law enforcement agency. Davis should be considered armed and dangerous.
